EDITORIAL

This new edition of the Ambassador desires to accomplish a dual purpose. Not only does it attempt to capture a year between its covers, but also it endeavors to retain some of the spiritual atmosphere which challenged all who have entered our school this past year. If this book will serve as a bridge to the past, to bring to mind lessons learned, and to recapture joys shared during the year just completed, it will have served these aims.

Our school theme is "World Evangelism through trained leadership." For each student to be equipped to carry out this motto upon leaving our college, he or she must have begun growing toward Christian maturity while here. This involves a day by day process over a number of years, not just a sudden transformation at graduation. Considering this task which lies before each student, the yearbook staff has decided to present a challenge in this book: BE THOU AN EXAMPLE in LEADERSHIP, SCHOLARSHIP, FELLOWSHIP, and DISCIPLESHIP. Each of these areas must be developed to fulfill our school theme.

With these thoughts, we proudly present to you, the students, your new Ambassador.

Let no man despise thy youth; but BE THOU AN EXAMPLE of the believers, in word, in conversation, in charity, in spirit, in faith, in purity.

I Timothy 4:12

DEDICATION

This year, the Ambassador staff takes great pleasure in dedicating the Ambassador to our Acting President and Dean of Faculty, Dr. Foster.

To the community, he is the head representative of our school, but to us, he is a very special person. Why? Because he makes us feel right at home. At every meeting, formal or informal, he remembers each one of us by name. We are part of his family and we know that he is concerned about our total development.

In the classroom, we catch a glimpse of Dr. Foster, the scholar. His syllabi in Theology are tangible expressions of his systematic approach to studies.

He is an important personality in making our school life what it is. With him rests the heavy responsibility of running our school efficiently and the seeking of the best qualified faculty, so that we may receive the most benefit from our academic years. Therefore, as a token of our appreciation, we would like to say thank you to him.

Thus, to you, Dr. Foster, we dedicate our 1967

Ambassador,

'66 GRADUATION TESTIMONIES

ELEANOR IRWIN

During my early teenage years, one question loomed in my mind. Can only a few Christians know God in a personal way? If not, why are so many easy-going, and complacent, in their walk with God?

God says, "Ye shall seek and find me, when ye shall search for me with all your heart."

While drifting along, God put a desperate longing in my heart for Himself. The second year at L.C.B.M. I had two courses dealing with the Inductive Bible Study Method. Spending hours on assignments in God's Word, permitted His Holy Spirit to work in my life.

FRASER McKENZIE

Tonight it is a privilege to stop for a moment and reflect before I set out to face a new frontier of life's experience. Born and raised in a Christian home in London, I was taught God's way both at home and at church. At the age of eleven I accepted the Lord Jesus Christ by faith. However, it was not until I was in Grade 13 that I made Him my Lord and Master.

I had never considered Bible College before, but it suddenly became a natural desire as I sensed God's call into His ministry, and I found myself entering the halls of London College of Bible and Missions four years ago,

What does London College of Bible and Missions

I learned how to really study God's Word for the first time. This has enabled me to know the Lord Jesus Christ in a wonderful, daily relationship.

L.C.B.M. has played an important and strategic part in my life. Our faculty has taught us, as much outside class by their personal help, guidance, and example, as they have in their classes.

As I graduate it is with the knowledge, "Not that I am sufficient of myself, . . . but, my sufficiency is of God."

-- from testimony given at '66 Graduation mean to me tonight? It was here that I again fell in love with Jesus Christ. Now as I leave, it is with a great desire to study God's Word that I might minister to others.

But as I go, it is with a great sense of inadequacy for all that God has for me to do, and yet there is that great assurance within my heart that even as He has called to the task, He will enable and His strength is made perfect in my weakness. I go to serve Jesus Christ with this resolve, "For we preach not ourselves, but Christ Jesus the Lord and ourselves your servants for Jesus' sake, Amen,"

-- from testimony given at '66 Graduation

OUR TRIBUTE

The school family takes great pleasure in expressing its most sincere appreciation to our former school president, Dr. J.C. Macaulay. Consistent and dedicated, he walked with the Lord in faith, making Him more real to us, thus bringing the Lord's blessings and guidance into our lives. In the hearts of our '66 gtads and in the hearts of all who knew him, he will always occupy a very personal and special place. Our prayers will follow Dr. Macaulay and the '66 graduates who now have left us to serve our Lord elsewhere.

LEADERSHIP

Dear Students:

The Board of Governors of London College of Bible and Missions count it a real privilege to be involved in the work of preparing you for the service of Jesus Christ.

Although we do not often see you, we are always concerned about your welfare, and seek to direct the affairs of the school in order to advance your spiritual goals.

Each of us trust that your experience in the college will be one of spiritual blessing and development.

We have seen 651 graduates proceed from the halls of London College of Bible and Missions. These prepared workers are already making a tremendous impact for Christ as they serve throughout the world in many nations. Greater numbers of prepared workers are constantly needed to labour in the harvest fields. The Board of Governors desire to see the work of our school significantly strengthened in order to provide some of the workers which are needed.

To the graduates of 1967 we desire to express our congratulations, and to pray that the Lord's presence and power may be your portion in the days ahead.

Chairman, Board of Governors

Dear Students of L.C.B.M.:

School days are probably among the most important days of your life. In the halls of learning you acquire a resource of knowledge which you will use in the future days of service. Here also your attitudes are formed, and the patterns of your conduct established. I do trust that your experiences this year have been ones which will contribute to a wonderful future in the service of our Lord.

Graduates are now standing upon the threshold of a new and challenging opportunity of active service. I trust that you will continue to learn in the days ahead, and that your life will be increasingly more like your Master's. The way ahead will be difficult, perilous, frustrating, and discouraging, but you will find that His grace is more than sufficient for all of these experiences that you will face. But then the way ahead will also have its blessings, its opportunities, its ministries, and its joys, and these will be most rewarding.

Some of you will be returning to the halls of London College next year. I trust that together we may grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord. We are living in very important days when the church of Jesus Christ urgently needs dedicated and well-trained workers. We do not want to give our Saviour the second best, but must seek to become through His enablement the very best instruments to be placed in His hand.

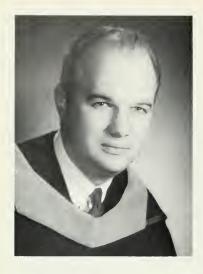

Yours in Christ,

William R. Foster

AMBASSADOR 1967

The Yearbook captures the happiest moments of your school life, providing a pictorial record for the future. Ten years from now, when you may be scattered to the far corners of the globe, you will look through this book that holds so much sentiment for you as you reminisce. Moreover, for the yearbook staff, who must work hard, conscientiously and continuously, it provides a unique lesson in dedication, patience and journalistic experience.

The Student Missions Fellowship, in keeping with the purpose of L.C.B.M. -- 'world evangelization through trained leadership' -- is dedicated to informing students of world missions, and involving them in missionary endeavor by praying, giving, and serving.

Besides a regular missions chapel, the student body meets in one of five prayer groups to intercede on behalf of those who are actively engaged in sharing the gospel with others.

STUDENT MISSIONS FELLOWSHIP

However, since missions are next door, as well as across the sea, students are encouraged to serve as "workers together with Him" in London at the Rescue Mission, Salvation Army, Western University, and such other fields as God directs.

This year we have pledged ourselves to raise $1600, which will go to the ends of the earth, that Jesus Christ might be made known in the hearts of men everywhere.

STUDENTS' COUNCIL

The Students' Council acts as a representative assembly of the student body. It is made up of representatives from the various classes along with an executive elected by the students. The Council communicates student opinion to the faculty, and directs student extracurricular activity. An added feature in council this year is the Administrative Press Conference, which is designed to increase communications between faculty, administration, and the student body.

STUDENT JUDICIARY

The student judiciary is a disciplinary body consisting of the Students' Council vice-president as chief justice plus four other justices elected by Students' Council. Its purpose is to encourage among the students self-discipline and responsibility for abiding by the rules, The judiciary reminds offenders that their actions have spiritual implications and penalties are assigned in order to reinforce these facts in the student's mind.

Ladies' Auxiliary monthly meeting in progress

LADIES' AUXILIARY

Freshmen meet prayer partners

The Ladies' Auxiliary is a group of faithful and interested women who meet once a month for the purpose of praying for the students and the College activities.

They have devised a prayer partner system whereby each member of the Auxiliary receives a student to uphold in prayer.

Each year they choose something that the College needs for their project. This past year they provided the men's residence with new bedspreads, an electric heater and fluorescent desk lamps for the study areas.

We would like to express our appreciation to the Ladies' Auxiliary for their faithfulness in praying for and giving to our College.

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

The Seniors, perhaps more than the rest of the student body, are aware of the Alumni Association. Upon graduation from our College, their names will be included in the membership of the Alumni. One year or special students become associate alumni members.

The main purposes of the Alumni Association are:

- a) to encourage members to maintain continuing interest and support in the ministry of our school;
- b) to co-operate with the College in achieving its purpose;
- c) to promote and regulate local Alumni activities as well as support the global Alumni program;
- d) to continue in Christian fellowship with each Alumni member and create helpful friendships with present and prospective students.

CLASS OF '67

But they that WAIT UPON THE LORD shall renew their strength.

Isaiah 40:31

FRONT ROW: H. Miller, Vice-president; J. Fifield, Women's Athletic Rep.; W. Ericsson, Secretary. BACK ROW: R. Henson, Men's Athletic Rep.; B. Futtney, President; C. DeBoer, Treasurer. NOT PRESENT: B. Britton, S. M. F.

CLASS OF '67 SPEAKS

Entering with the enthusiasm that is typical of Freshmen, this largest class soon made its mark on L.C.B.M. Characterized by determination and initiative, the class has endeavoured to remain a unit through socials and more important, the weekly class prayer meetings. It is this togetherness which has enabled the class to progress these four years, to the position of leadership and responsibility in which we now find ourselves.

Our major responsibility in our Freshman year was planning Mayhem, a tribute day to the graduating class. As sophomores, '67 had the privilege of organizing orientation. The games, skits, early morning breakfast and banquet were means to set the spiritual tones for the school life of the incoming class. This was the year of rollicking class meetings and frustrating elections. Then as juniors the year was highlighted by the grad banquet, a token of our appreciation to our big brothers and sisters of '66. As a team, '67 worked toward the realization of this goal. The responsibilities of these past three years prepared us for our senior year.

Many of our classmates have voluntarily dropped from our active list. Some have taken the step to go to the classes of '66 and '68. Others have chosen not to graduate. There are those who are pastors, one ministering in Southeast Asia, others are working full time elsewhere as the Lord has led. To these we say "While you were here, your contribution to the class did not go unnoticed; we are thankful and do remember you in prayer".

Now we are seniors! Retreat and the following Spiritual Life Conference set the spiritual atmosphere for this final year. We remember with special gratefulness the three years with the Bradens and give thanks to the Ecklebargers for taking over as class advisors. Many of us are married; others are glad for single blessings. We contemplate graduation, the opportunity to serve our Lord. Many plans are indefinite, others are sure. One thing is certain--God will guide us in His time. Anxiousness and fears are to no avail, they who know the will of God are they who wait on the Lord. We go, we serve, we follow, we wait--God will be glorified.

CLASS OF '68 SPEAKS

Even though the cry of "'68 is really great" did not come into vogue until this past year, the class as such has undoubtedly felt this distinction right from the beginning. For several of our present class, orientation came in the fall of 1963 when they were part of the combined class of 1967-68.

The next year our ranks swelled with the incoming freshman class, and we became a distinct entity--the class of 1968. Many of us who were freshmen that year will remember our orientation with "Big Sister" Bert Fryers and "Big Brother" Jon Vaughan who gave us our class verse: "Looking unto Jesus." (Hebrews 12:1). With mostly freshmen, our class was not outstanding in student competition--in fact, we lost Harmony Hassel that year.

But we certainly made up for this during the next year 1965-66, when our numbers increased once again to 38. The winning of Harmony Hassel in this year helped to draw us closer together and to put "a feather in our cap." We were even more closely knit together as we had several class socials and worked with the men at the Rescue Mission. We were really conscious of the Lord's leading in our work at the Mission and trust that He used us to reach these men.

In this our Junior year, 1966-67, we are experiencing a closer spiritual fellowship with others of our class--at class socials as well as at prayer meetings. Our prayer, in this our year of preparation for graduation, is that we may not strive for self-glory as the "really great" class, but that each member of our class may continually bring glory to our Lord by looking unto Him for His every sufficiency.

CLASS OF '69 SPEAKS

In Colossians 2:6, we find these words: "As ye have therefore received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk ye in Him." It is these last four words, "Walk ye in Him" to which the class of '69 is cleaving as a motto during these beginning days of preparation for His service at London College.

For this theme and the reality of it in our daily experiences, we thank our Big Brothers and Big Sisters and the class of '68. We praise God for them and the influence and testimony they have been to our own lives. For Orientation 1965 and for the way they made us feel an essential part of the College family, we would also give them thanks.

Realizing what had been done for us, we set our aims high in planning and preparing this year's Orientation under the Lord's direction. How thrilled and blessed we were in seeing and welcoming to our campus fiftyone freshmen whom the Lord had led to L. C. B. M. to train with us.

Even as this year is drawing to a close, we still repeat with a deep sense of love and responsibility to the year's freshmen,

"Welcome to London College."

TRUST IN THE LORD with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding.

Proverbs 3:5

CLASS OF '70 SPEAKS

On September 6, 1966, fifty-one hesitant, trembling souls set foot on the hallowed campus of L. C. B. M. What a day of joy and trepidation! You see, these were no ordinary folk. They were freshmen--poor, innocent "babes" thrust into a hostile environment of sophomores, juniors, and (shudder) seniors.

So it may have seemed--until that first evening. At 7:00 p.m. the fun and festivities of orientation week were set in motion. I am sure we all remember that "get-acquainted" evening. What a beginning! But it was only the beginning. "Freshies" began to forget themselves in trying to remember where they were supposed to be when.

There were serious times too, times when we met with the One who led us here, times when we took inventory of our spiritual lives, and times when our purpose here was brought to remembrance.

In the fourth week an election was held, an executive chosen, and a new life came into being—the Class of '70!! Of those fifty—one freshmen, thirty—four were destined to have the honour of membership. At least we hope it will be an honour. We would like to become known as "the class in the heart of the campus, with the campus on its heart."

We commend this year's sophomore class for their highly successful orientation program. Such a welcome to a new environment means a lot! We, the Class of '70, will strive to live the motto they gave us--"Trust in the Lord"--as we look forward to good times together and to the planning of orientation and banquet for next year's freshmen,

Once again, a hearty thanks to all at L.C.B.M. who contributed in any way to our happiness in this new family. May we, the Class of '70, keep up the Christian tradition.

ORIENTATION

For all, the first week of college was spent in getting acquainted with each other, but for the freshmen, it was also a time of adjusting to new friends, new surroundings and of course, tests.

Tuesday, September 6, the day of arrival at L.C.B.M. was full of much activity. Upperclassmen renewed old friendships of the past year as well as welcomed the new students to the campus.

Wednesday, September 7 and Thursday, September 8 were registration days for the upperclassmen and freshmen respectively.

Big and Little Brother in the Word

Strike one!

Why do we have that rule?

Two highlights of this week were the picnic at Springbank Park and the Orientation Banquet at Rowntree Memorial United Church.

Friday, September 16 was Faculty Reception night at our College. The evening was casual and exciting as the students met the staff and faculty over light conversation and delightful refreshments. This was also a get-acquainted social time for big brothers and big sisters.

Spiritual food

On Thursday afternoon, September 22, amid a torrential downpour, several carloads of senior students left the school and emerged with mud-covered vehicles at Chesley Lake--this year's destination for Senior retreat,

However, as the unfortunate weather did not persist, only Friday afternoon's hike was cancelled. All the other activities went ahead smoothly on schedule. All joined in, in testing their various abilities. Dr. and Mrs. Foster tried out their golf skills. The "couples" baseball game on Saturday was really exciting.

On Saturday afternoon the group took time to visit the nuclear power station at Douglas Point. In general, it was a very profitable and educational afternoon.

On November 5, L.C.B.M. along with Toronto Bible College, Central Baptist Seminary and Emmanuel Bible College met at Guelph Collegiate for the annual Quad Olympics Night.

Each school entered a basketball and volleyball team for the men and a volleyball team for the ladies. This year, after the round-robin was completed in all the sports, L.C.B.M. was again on top to retain the trophy for the fourth straight year.

To close the evening off, after a time of fellowship at supper, each school provided a skit followed by a short devotional.

GRADUATION BANQUET

The class of '67 honoured the graduating class of '66 with a very successful banquet April 1st at Beal Secondary School. The banquet was centred around the theme "Follow Thou Me". Dr. C.C. Pitt, Ph.D. gave the address and special music for the evening was presented by violinist Mr. Young Lee, and the L.C.B.M. Octet. Mr. David Gast sang the Solo of Dedication. Our best wishes for the future were extended to the Graduates.

Central Baptist Church was the scene for the annual Baccalaureate Service held on Friday, April 29, 1966. Dr. Macaulay, in his address, informed the graduates and the entire student body that "we must get back to the essentials and down to the basics. Return to the essentials," he stated, "would deepen the Christian's life." The special music provided by the College Chorale and the College Octet left a lasting impression.

The twenty-seventh annual commencement was held in First St. Andrew's Church on Saturday, April 30, 1966. Dr. Arthur F. Glasser, Home Director for the Overseas Missionary Fellowship urged the graduates to "be aware of the mission to which God has called them." Special music for the evening was provided by the College Chorale.

FALL BIBLE CONFERENCE

During the week of September 26-29 we had our annual Fall Bible Conference. Dr. Stephen Olford, pastor of Calvary Baptist Church in New York City, brought a stirring series of messages on "The Exchanged Life." His advice to the student body was not only scriptural and straightforward but also practical. Emphatically Dr. Olford presented the truth "Christianity is the outliving of an indwelling Christ who is LORD of ALL."

Practical Missions

A mission to all the world serving evangelical missionaries and national churches

> Friends often ask us: "Just what is World Vision? - you seem to have so many different kinds of outreach that I'm not exactly sure what you do". Basically the work of World Vision covers five different types of Christian Service: Christian Social Welfare; Evangelistic Outreach; Christian Leadership Development; Emergency Aid; Missionary Challenge. The task to which He has called us is worthy of all we spend in His Name.

THE ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

LONDON COLLEGE OF BIBLE AND MISSIONS

BOX 65, LONDON, ONTARIO

Dear Graduates of 1967,

Greetings in the name of our blessed Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ:

It is with joy that I write to you on behalf of our Alumni who are serving their Master in 44 countries across the globe. And it is also a privilege for me to welcome you into this great Association.

As you are looking to the future with anticipation and a deep desire to do your Master's will, it is my prayer that in All your ways you will acknowledge Him.

In times such as these, we need men and women who will stand for the Truth. While this world is in turmoil and rumours of war, we must keep before us the blessed Hope of His return. The time is short and the fields are white unto Harvest. Let us work as a unit, upholding the blessed Word, being "steadfast, unmovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, for as much as you know that your labour is not in vain in the Lord." I Corinthians 15:58.

We prayerfully commit you to the place of God's appointment as you enter our Association.

Yours in His service,

WANTED: The person responsible for this yearbook.

The production of the 1967 Ambassador would not have been possible without the assistance of my dedicated staff and the co-operation of the advertisers.

I extend special thanks to Mr. Ecklebarger who advised us and also Mr. German who gave advice regarding finances. I appreciate, too, the contributions of Mr. Dick, of Inter-Collegiate Press by way of constructive criticism and encouragement.

Last but not least, I thank all the camera-shy students and faculty who supported the cause by allowing us to catch--and keep--our candid shots.
